Day 1 Depart USA Today you begin an amazing cultural adventure as you depart the USA on your international flight to Japan.

Day 2 Arrive Tokyo, Japan Upon arrival at Narita Airport, you will be met by your Aventura World tour director and depart to your hotel in Tokyo for check-in. Tokyo welcomes you from its ultramodern skyscrapers and neon-clad edifices to its time-honored temples that share the old world history and mystique of this fascinating land. A feast for the senses from exquisite dining, to spiritual temples and shrines, to fascinating museums and architectural gems, your time in Japan will be unforgettable every step of the way. This evening we will share in a splendid welcome dinner at our hotel restaurant. (D)

Day 3 Tokyo Rise and shine with an included breakfast before heading out for a day of adventuring in Tokyo. Visit Tsukiji Outer Market, situated adjacent to the world's largest wholesale fish and seafood market, where you will experience more than 400 outlets in this shopping area that dates back to the Taisho period (1912-26). Next, discover Jiyu Gakuen Myonichikan, a school building designed by Frank Lloyd Wright and his apprentice Arata Endo for Yoshikazu Hani and his wife Motoko in 1921. As the day's activities continue, take part in a tea ceremony and learn the proper way to enjoy Japanese tea at Happo en's teahouse Muan, meaning "a garden beautiful from any angle." Later, the Ota Ukiyoe Museum welcomes you with its collection of over 12,000 pieces of ukiyo-e prints, woodblock prints that are a typical Japanese art form. Pieces of the collection date back more than 200 years and depict scenes from the 'Floating World' such as teahouses, geisha, and cherryblossoms. The collection was donated by the estate of Seizo Ota, the late chairman of a major Japanese insurance company. Tonight is the ideal time to experience the culinary treats of Tokyo at leisure and enjoy dinner at your choice of the city's near-endless restaurants. (B)

Day 4 Tokyo Today depart for an exciting day of Tokyo sightseeing starting with the opportunity to discover the Imperial Palace Plaza, home to the Japanese Emperor. Visit the Old Imperial Bar at Imperial Hotel. The Imperial Hotel was originally designed by Frank Lloyd Wright in the 1920s. Furniture and fixtures in the Old Imperial Bar are a salute to the famed architect. Today, you will have an opportunity to enjoy lunch at the Imperial Hotel. Return to hotel and take time to enjoy the rest of the day at leisure. Tonight, Tokyo's nightlife is yours to experience. Opt to head to the Shibuya district, brimming with restaurants, boutiques, bars, clubs, arcades and karaoke bars, or head to the Shinjuku district with its great diversity of evening options from lively izakayas and beer bars to more racy red-light entertainment. (B,L)

Day 5 Tokyo Breakfast at your hotel kicks-off your day before you meet up with your insightful guide. Visit the Metropolitan Teiene Art Museum, the art Deco building, completed in 1933, featuring decorative glass work by Rene Lalique. Enjoy lunch at your own pace in the Shinjuku district then head to the Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building and up to the observation decks that boast fantastic panoramic views of Tokyo and beyond. Visit Edo Tokyo Museum which opened in 1993 as a space to reflect on the history and culture of Edo-Tokyo and envision the city and life of the future. The permanent exhibition, showcasing original objects and replicas. offers visitors a journey through the 400-year history of Edo-Tokyo since Tokugawa leyasu entered Edo. Tonight you will enjoy a traditional dinner of Chanko Nabe, a hearty hot pot dish chock-full of vegetables and protein in a flavorful dashi and chicken broth. This dish is also known as sumo soup as it is often eaten by sumo wrestlers. (B,D)

Day 6 Tokyo/Fuji Area Enjoy breakfast at your hotel, and then embark on an enlightening tour of Meiji Jingu Shrine, a Shinto shrine located in Shibuya, Tokyo dedicated to Emperor Meiji and his wife, Empress Shoken. Next, we will head along to the Harajuku district and explore the Takeshita Street pedestrian shopping area lined with all kinds of boutiques, cafes, and restaurants. Enjoy some time at leisure, before experiencing Shibuya Crossing, often referred to as the busiest intersection in the world with hundreds and at sometimes over 1000 people crossing at a time. Next, proceed on to Ryokan in Hakone for check–in. Enjoy Onsen hot spring spa and dinner in Ryokan, a perfect way to conclude your full day of touring. (B,D)

Day 7 Fuji Area/Kyoto Venture on to ascend Mount Komagatake via its namesake ropeway or aerial lift that climbs from the Lake Ashi lakeside. Next, enjoy a Lake Ashi Cruise in the Hakone area of Kanagawa Prefecture in Honshū, Japan. Sail along this crater-lake situated along the caldera of Mount Hakone, a volcano that last erupted in 1170 CE. Share time with your fellow travelers at an early lunch today at a local restaurant then proceed to Mount Fuji for a trekking experience (optional and dependent on weather). Afterwards, you travel on to Mishima Station and board JR Shinkansen bullet train for Kyoto. Once the capital of Japan, Kyoto is known for its Buddhist temples, Shinto shrines, imperial palaces, Japanese wooden houses. With time at leisure for dinner on your own, consider trying a refined kaiseki dining experience. Kaiseki is the ultimate Japanese haute cuisine consisting of tasting courses, perfectly prepared and elegantly presented. (B,L)

Day 8 Kyoto Today have a spiritual awakening with a visit to the Zen Buddhist temple of Kinkaku-ji. Also known as the Golden Pavilion, the beautiful temple is covered in gold leaf and is surrounded by beautiful Japanese gardens. Enjoy lunch on your own at Nishiki Ichiba (Market), a street lined by more than one hundred shops and restaurants, also known as "Kyoto's Kitchen," featuring seasonal foods and Kyoto specialties, such as Japanese sweets and sushi. Next, it's on to Fushimi Inari Taisha Shrine, the head shrine of the god Inari situated at the base of Inari Mountain. The Gion district, famous entertainment and geisha quarter on the eastern bank of the Kamo-gawa, welcomes you with its shops, restaurants, and ochaya (teahouses), and the possibility to see Geisha in their traditional makeup and in full kimono making their way to and from work. (B)

Day 9 Kyoto Start your day with a tour of Miho Museum. Designed by the world-famous architect I. M. Pei, 80 percent of the museum is set beneath the surface of the mountain. This captivating museum is amazing, not only for its inspired collection, but also for its architectural design that features elegant angles, contemporary windows, and bold lines. Next, you will visit Meijimura Museum, an open-air architectural museum where you will see Frank Lloyd Wright's Imperial Hotel Entrance. Enjoy lunch on your own at Meijimura, then return to Kyoto. (B)

Day 10 Kyoto Enjoy a city tour of Kyoto today. First, you will explore Nijo Castle, built in 1603 as the official residence of the first Tokugawa shogun. Step back in time and see the moats, walls, secret passageways, and hidden chambers of this heavily fortified castle. Head to Arashiyama, Kyoto's second-most important sightseeing district filled with temples, shrines, and the famed Arashiyama Bamboo Grove. The rest of the day is at your leisure. (B)

Day 11 Kyoto Today head to Koshien Hotel with an architectural style is heavily influenced by the Imperial Hotel by Frank Lloyd Wright. Enjoy a delectable Kobe beef lunch at a local restaurant. Then it's on to Yodoko Guest House. Designed in 1918, it is the only surviving Frank Lloyd Wright residence in Japan. After the tour, return to your hotel in Kyoto. The rest of the day is yours to enjoy at leisure to experience its many Japanese gardens, shrines, temples, teahouses, markets, and more. Savor dinner at your choice of the many superb restaurants the city is pleased to present. (B,L)

Day 12 Kyoto to USA Depending on flight schedules, enjoy free time to continue exploring prior to transferring to the airport and departing for your international flight home with unending memories to share and cherish always of your outstanding time in Japan. (B)
